PROXY STATEMENT
FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
FEBRUARY 28, 2002

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

GENERAL

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of JNS Marketing, Inc., a Colorado corporation (the "Company"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on February 28, 2002 at 12:00 p.m., local time, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at the Company's principal executive office, 4150 Long Beach Boulevard, Long Beach, California 90807. This proxy statement and accompanying proxy will first be mailed to stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting on or about February 6, 2002.

SOLICITATION

The Company will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the proxy and any additional information furnished to stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. The Company will reimburse persons representing beneficial owners of Common Stock for their costs of forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram or personal solicitation by the Company or its agents. No directors, officers or other regular employees will be paid any additional compensation for such services.

VOTING RIGHTS AND OUTSTANDING SHARES

Only holders of record of Common Stock at the close of business on January 25, 2002 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on December 28, 2001, the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote 14,529,100 shares of Common Stock, the only outstanding class of securities entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each share of Common Stock will be entitled to one vote on all matters to be voted on at the Annual Meeting.

QUORUM

A quorum must be present for any action to be taken on a voting matter at the Annual Meeting. The presence in person or by proxy of persons holding one-third of the shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote constitutes a quorum. Except in the election of directors and the approval of the redomicile and reincorporation of the Company, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares present in person or by proxy will be required for the approval of all matters presented at the Annual Meeting. Directors will be elected by plurality vote. The redomicile and reincorporation of the Company must be approved by two-thirds of all of the votes entitled to vote. All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the Annual Meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and broker non-votes. Broker non-votes occur when brokers or other nominees are prohibited from exercising discretionary voting authority for beneficial owners who have not provided voting instructions. Abstentions will be counted toward the tabulation of votes cast on proposals presented to the stockholders and will have the same effect as negative votes. Broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but will not be counted for the purpose of determining whether a matter has been approved.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

Any person giving a proxy pursuant to this solicitation has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted. It may be revoked by filing with the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive office, 4150 Long Beach Boulevard, Long Beach, California 90807, a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or it may be revoked by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

DISSENTERS' RIGHT OF APPRAISAL

Colorado General Corporation Law provides for certain dissenters' rights in connection with the proposed redomicile and reincorporation of the Company in Nevada as Latinocare Management Corporation, which proposal is to be considered at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The failure of a shareholder to vote against this proposal will not constitute a waiver of any rights otherwise afforded to any such shareholder by the laws of the State of Colorado, however, a shareholder may not vote in favor of this proposal and still retain dissenters' rights.

A shareholder who intends to dissent from the proposed corporate action to redomicile and reincorporate the Company in Nevada as Latinocare Management Corporation must make a payment demand for the fair value of his or her shares in writing to the Company prior to the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Such demand, when made, is effective to require payment in lieu of retaining ownership of the shares if a majority of the other shareholders take the proposed corporate action. The dissenting shareholder may not vote his or her shares in favor of the proposed corporate action. Provided the Company has received the dissenter's share certificates and written payment demand prior to the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, upon the effective date of the redomicile and reincorporation of the Company in Nevada as Latinocare Management Corporation, the Company will pay the dissenter the amount the Company estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares. If the dissenter refuses the offer by the Company, the dissenter may submit in writing to the corporation the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares. If the demand for payment remains unresolved, the Company may, within sixty days after receiving the demand, file suit in a District Court in Colorado to have the fair value of the shares determined by an independent party. The Court would consider such appraisal at trial and render a decision as to the value of the dissenter's shares. The Court may then enter a judgment for such determined value in favor of the shareholder. A copy of Colorado Revised Statutes Sections 7-113-201 through 209 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the beneficial ownership of the Company's capital stock as of December 28, 2001, by (i) each stockholder who is known by the Company to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the Company's Common Stock, the only class of the Company's outstanding voting securities, (ii) each director and executive officer of the Company who owns any shares of Common Stock, and (iii) all executive officers and directors as a group. Except as otherwise indicated, the Company believes that the beneficial owners of the shares listed below have sole investment and voting power with respect to such shares, subject to community property laws where applicable. These shareholders plan to vote all of their shares for the adoption of all of the proposals disclosed in this Proxy Statement.

Jose J. Gonzalez.....	55	President, Chief Executive Officer, Secretary, and Chairman

Under the Colorado General Corporation Law and the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the Company's directors will have no personal liability to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages incurred as the result of the breach or alleged breach by a director of his "duty of care." This provision does not apply to the directors' (i) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing and culpable violation of law, (ii) acts or omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of the corporation or its shareholders or that involve the absence of good faith on the part of the director, (iii) approval of any transaction from which a director derives an improper personal benefit, (iv) acts or omissions that show a reckless disregard for the director's duty to the corporation or its shareholders in circumstances in which the director was aware, or should have been aware, in the ordinary course of performing a director's duties, of a risk of serious injury to the corporation or its shareholders, (v) acts or omissions that constituted an unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of the director's duty to the corporation or its shareholders, or (vi) approval of an unlawful dividend, distribution, stock repurchase or redemption. This provision would generally absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities

Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable.

AUTHORIZATION TO REDOMICILE AND REINCORPORATE IN NEVADA AS LATINOCARE MANAGEMENT CORPORATION

The Board of Directors is asking shareholders to approve the redomicile and reincorporation of the Company in the State of Nevada as Latinocare Management Corporation. In order to accomplish the redomicile and reincorporation, the Company will incorporate a wholly owned subsidiary in the State of Nevada to be named Latinocare Management Corporation ("LMC-NV") with which the Company will merge. LMC-NV will be the surviving corporation. Accordingly, the new name of the Company will be Latinocare Management Corporation. The capitalization of LMC-NV is anticipated to consist of 50,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, authorized and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share, authorized with such classes, rights, preferences, and privileges as the Board of Directors may hereafter determine.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF REDOMICILE PROPOSAL

Management believes that there are no disadvantages to redomiciling in Nevada from an operational standpoint, but that there are several advantages to redomiciling in Nevada from a procedural standpoint. For example, many acquisition/merger candidates consider the process of submitting a merger proposal to shareholders for a vote through a registration statement filed with the Securities Exchange Commission to be too lengthy and expensive to endure, limiting corporate opportunities. Nevada law, however, permits the Board of Directors to approve a merger without shareholder approval, provided that the number of post-merger shares outstanding does not exceed 120% of the number of pre-merger shares outstanding.

Additionally, Nevada Revised Statutes Section 78.320 provides that any action required or permitted to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting, if shareholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding voting shares of the company sign a written consent. Colorado law contains no such provision. In the case of a merger, this provision of Nevada laws allows majority shareholders to forgo a shareholders meeting, even if a merger will result in the issuance of more than an additional 20% of the outstanding pre-merger shares.

The Company proposes authorizing blank check preferred stock. This refers to future classes of preferred stock which have, at this time, no defined rights and privileges. In the future, the Board of Directors may determine the classes of preferred stock and rights and privileges thereof without shareholder approval, and the rights and privileges could, in worst case, be so overbearing and detrimental to the interests of common shareholders as to render common shares worthless. Further, preferred shares could exercise total control. There are currently no plans to issue any preferred stock with any defined rights and privileges.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

SHAREHOLDER VOTING. Under Colorado law, a corporate action requiring shareholder approval must be approved at a shareholders' meeting unless all of the shareholders entitled to vote consent to such action in writing. Alternatively, under Nevada law, a corporate action requiring shareholder approval may be approved by a majority of shareholders of the corporation by written consent without a shareholders meeting.

Under Colorado law, corporate actions involving a recapitalization or merger require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation unless the corporation's Articles of Incorporation provide for approval by a simple majority of the outstanding shares. Under Nevada law, however, corporate actions involving a recapitalization or merger require shareholder approval by a simple majority of the outstanding shares, and such approval may be done by written consent without a shareholder meeting.

DIVIDEND POLICIES. Under Colorado law, dividends on common stock may be declared and authorized by the Board of Directors as a distribution, at any time, so long as: (a) dividends on preferred classes of stock, if required, have first been paid in full; (b) the distribution of dividends does not render the corporation unable to pay debts in the usual course of business; and (c) the total liabilities of the corporation do not exceed the total assets after reserving any amounts needed to satisfy preferential rights of preferred shareholders in the event of dissolution.

Under Nevada law, the Board of Directors has the authority to declare dividends on common stock only if: (a) dividends on preferred classes of stock, if required, have been paid in full; (b) the corporation remains able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business after the effect of the dividend; and (c) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount needed to satisfy the preferential rights of preferred shareholders in the event of dissolution.

Except with respect to distributions by purchase, redemption or other acquisition of the corporation's shares or any other distribution of indebtedness, both Colorado and Nevada law define the time parameters within which the liquidity test set forth in (b) and (c) above must be measured as the date the distribution (dividend) is authorized if payment occurs within 120 days thereafter, or the date dividend payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after authorization.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS. Under both Nevada and Colorado law, if the class of shares entitled to vote with respect to a plan of merger or exchange is listed on a national securities exchange registered under the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or on the National Market System of the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System, or the shares are held by more than 2,000 shareholders of record, shareholders are not entitled to dissenters' rights provided shareholders will receive cash or stock or a combination of both.

Under Nevada law, if a corporate action creating dissenters' rights is taken without a meeting of the shareholders, the corporation must, within ten days after the effectuation of the corporate action, notify in writing all shareholders entitled to dissent that the action was taken and the procedure for dissenters to follow to make demand for payment. Within 30 days after receiving a demand for payment, the corporation must pay the dissenter the fair value of his shares. Similar to Colorado law, under Nevada law a dissenter who is dissatisfied with the corporation's determination of the fair value of his shares may submit his own estimate of fair value, and if the dissenter and the corporation cannot agree as to fair value, the Court may determine fair value.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE. Currently, the Company's Articles of Incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting and the Articles of Incorporation for Nevada would not provide for cumulative voting.

Under Nevada law, directors may be removed by a vote of 2/3 of the shareholders entitled to vote whereas under Colorado law, directors may be removed by a vote of a majority of the shareholders at a meeting called for such purpose. In both states, vacant director positions may be filled by appointment by the remaining members of the Board of Directors.

Under Nevada law, the Board of Directors may, without a vote of the shareholders, approve and effectuate a reverse split or recapitalization of the outstanding shares of the corporation. Colorado law requires shareholder approval to accomplish a reverse split of shares.

Under Colorado law, any shareholder may, during reasonable business hours upon five days prior written notice, inspect the books and financial records of the corporation. Under Nevada law, a person holding or representing 15% or more of the outstanding shares may, on at least five days prior written notice, inspect the books and financial records of the corporation.

There are no conversion rights or sinking fund provisions which are applicable in Colorado or Nevada under the Company's current capital structure.

TAKEOVER BIDS. Under Nevada law, unless the Articles of Incorporation provide that the anti-takeover sections of Nevada Revised Statutes Sections 78.378 to 78.3793 do not apply, Nevada law provides that in the event any person or group acting together acquire control shares (defined as one fifth or more of the outstanding shares), a takeover statement is required to be sent to the shareholders, and the control shares may not be voted except by resolution of a majority of the non-control shareholders at a special meeting of shareholders called more than 30 days after delivery of an offeror's statement. Colorado law has no such anti-takeover provisions.

PROPOSAL III

RATIFICATION OF 2002 STOCK OPTION PLAN FOR LATINOCARE MANAGEMENT CORP.

Effective as of January 31, 2002, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously adopted the 2002 Stock Option Plan for Latinocare Management Corp. (the "Plan"), subject to shareholder ratification within twelve months of the adoption of the Plan. The Company has not issued any stock options under the Plan. The name of the Plan reflects the proposed new name of the Company.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

Below is a summary of the principal provisions of the Plan. The summary is not necessarily complete, and reference is made to the full text of the Plan attached as Exhibit C to this Proxy Statement. Capitalized terms used, but not defined herein, have the same meaning as set forth in the Plan.

GENERAL. The Plan provides for the grant of stock options to directors, officers, employees, consultants, and advisors of the Company. The Plan will be administered by a committee consisting of members of the Board of Directors (the "Stock Option Committee").

SHARES SUBJECT TO THE PLAN. The Plan provides for a total of 1,200,000 shares of common stock to be reserved for issuance subject to options. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors had not approved the grant of any options to purchase stock.

ANTI-DILUTION PROTECTION. Proportionate adjustments will be made to the number of shares of common stock subject to the Plan in the event of any change in the capitalization of the Company affecting its common stock (e.g., a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, combination, recapitalization, or reclassification). The Board or the Stock Option Committee, subject to Board approval, may also provide additional anti-dilution protection to a participant under the terms of such participant's option agreement or otherwise. Shares of common stock subject to option grants that are canceled, terminated, or forfeited will again be available for issuance under the Plan.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE PLAN. The Stock Option Committee will administer the Plan and has the authority to modify an existing option, interpret the Plan, adopt rules and procedures relating to the administration of the Plan, and make such modifications to the Plan as are necessary to effectuate the intent of the Plan as a result of any changes in the tax, accounting, or securities laws treatment of participants and the Plan.

STOCK OPTIONS, RESTRICTED STOCK, AND STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS. From time to time, the Stock Option Committee will recommend to the Board individuals the Stock Option Committee believes should receive options, the amount of shares of common stock the Stock Option Committee believes should be subject to such option, and whether the option should be a qualified or nonqualified option. The Board will consider, but need not accept, the Stock Option Committee's grant recommendations.

The Board may grant nonqualified stock option or incentive stock options to purchase shares of common stock. Any person who is not any employee on the effective date of the grant of an option to such person may be granted only a nonstatutory stock option. Moreover, to the extent that options designated as incentive stock options become exercisable by a participant for the first time during any calendar year for stock having a fair market value greater than $100,000, the portions of such options that exceed such amount will be treated as nonstatutory stock options. The Plan does not provide for stock appreciation rights.

The Stock Option Committee, subject to approval by the Board, will determine the number and exercise price of options, and the time or times that the options become exercisable, provided that an option exercise price may not be less than the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant. The term of an option will also be determined by the Stock Option Committee, subject to approval by the Board, provided that the term of a qualified option may not exceed ten years, or five years in the case of a qualified stock option granted to a 10% shareholder, and that at least 20% of the shares of common stock subject to each grant of options must become exercisable on each anniversary date of the date of grant. The Plan provides that each grant of options will vest in accordance with the applicable option agreement. The option exercise price may be paid in cash, by check or in such other form of lawful consideration (including promissory notes or shares of common stock then held by the participant).

CHANGE OF CONTROL. The Plan provides that in the event of a sale by the Company of all or substantially all of its assets, a merger of the Company with another company, the sale or issuance of more than 50% of the total issued and outstanding voting stock of the Company to another party or parties in a single transaction or in a series of related transactions, resulting in a change of control of the Company, or a similar business combination or extraordinary transaction involving the Company, all outstanding options granted to any officer, director, or employee of or key consultant to the Company which have not vested will accelerate to a date at least ten (10) business days prior to the closing date of such sale or similar business combination or extraordinary transaction. The exercise of options the vesting of which has accelerated accordingly will not be effective until the closing date of an above-referenced extraordinary transaction or business combination. Such vested options will terminate on the date of the closing of the event causing the vesting of the options to accelerate. The vesting of the options is conditioned upon the closing of the transaction that causes the vesting of the options to accelerate. If said transaction does not close within 30 days from the acceleration date, then the vesting of the accelerated options will not be effective, and the options will revert to their original vesting schedule, subject to acceleration again in accordance with the Plan if another extraordinary transaction or business combination is proposed and closes.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT. If a participant becomes disabled, all vested options may be exercised at any time within one year after the date on which the participant's services terminated, but in any event no later than the option expiration date. If a participant is terminated, his options will expire and cease to be exercisable 90 days from the date on which the participant's service terminated. If a participant dies, his options will expire and cease to be exercisable 90 days after the death of the participant. The termination of employment of a participant by death, disability or otherwise will not accelerate or otherwise affect the number of shares with respect to which an option may be exercised, and the option may only be exercised with respect to that number of shares which could have been purchased under the option had the option been exercised by the participant on the date of such termination.

TRANSFERABILITY. During the lifetime of the participant, options will be exercisable only by the participant or the participant's guardian or legal representative. No stock option may be assigned or transferred by the participant, except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

STOCKHOLDER RATIFICATION. The Plan must be approved by the stockholders of the Company within twelve months after the date of its adoption by the Board. Options granted prior to stockholder ratification may become exercisable no earlier than the date of stockholder ratification of the Plan. Options granted to executive officers that are designated as performance based under Section 162(m) of the Code must be contingent on stockholder ratification of the material terms of the Plan to the extent required under Section 162(m) of the Code.

AMENDMENTS TO THE PLAN. The Board may amend or discontinue the Plan at any time subject to certain restrictions set forth in the Plan. No amendment or discontinuance may adversely affect any previously granted option award without the consent of the recipient.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES. The following general description of federal income tax consequences is based upon current statutes, regulations and interpretations and does not purport to be complete. Reference should be made to the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"). In addition, state, local and foreign income tax consequences may be applicable to transactions involving options. The following description does not address specific tax consequences applicable to an individual participant who receives an option and does not address special rules that may be applicable to directors and officers.

Under existing federal income tax provisions, a participant who receives options will not normally realize any income, nor will the Company normally receive any deduction for federal income tax purposes, upon the grant of an option.

When a non-qualified stock option granted pursuant to the Plan is exercised, the employee generally will realize ordinary income (compensation) measured by the difference between the aggregate purchase price of the common stock as to which the option is exercised and the aggregate fair market value of the common stock on the exercise date, and the Company generally will be entitled to a deduction in the year the option is exercised equal to the amount the employee is required to treat as ordinary income. Any taxable income recognized in connection with a non-qualified stock option exercised by an optionee who is also an employee of the Company will be subject to tax withholding by the Company. The basis for determining gain or loss upon a subsequent disposition of common stock acquired upon the exercise of a non-qualified stock option will be the purchase price paid to the Company for the common stock increased by an amount included in the optionee's taxable income resulting from the exercise of such option. The holding period for determining whether gain or loss on such subsequent disposition is short-term or long-term generally begins on the date on which the optionee acquires the common stock.

An employee generally will not recognize any income upon the exercise of an incentive stock option, but the exercise may, depending on particular factors relating to the employee, subject the employee to the alternative minimum tax. An employee will recognize capital gain or loss in the amount of the difference between the exercise price and the sale price on the sale or exchange of stock acquired pursuant to the exercise of an incentive stock option, provided that the employee does not dispose of such stock within two years from the date of grant and one year from the date of exercise of the incentive stock option (the "Required Holding Periods"). An employee disposing of such shares before the expiration of the Required Holding Periods will recognize ordinary income equal to the lesser of (i) the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the stock on the date of exercise, or (ii) the total amount of gain realized. The remaining gain or loss is generally treated as short term or long-term gain or loss depending on how long the shares are held. The Company will not be entitled to a federal income tax deduction in connection with the exercise of an incentive stock option, except where the employee disposes of the shares of Common Stock received upon exercise before the expiration of the Required Holding Periods.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

In considering whether to vote for approval of the Plan, stockholders should be aware that each of the directors, nominees for director and executive officers will be eligible for option grants under the Plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THIS PROPOSAL.

PROPOSAL IV

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors has selected Oppenheim & Ostrick as the Company's independent accountants for the transition of the Company's fiscal year end to December 31 and for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001. Prior to the change of control of the Company on October 22, 2001, Michael B. Johnson & Company audited the Company's financial statements. Oppenheim & Ostrick has audited LMC's financial statements since 1999 and the Board of Directors has decided to utilize Oppenheim & Ostrick to audit the Company's financial statements. Representatives of Oppenheim & Ostrick are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of Oppenheim & Ostrick as the Company's independent accountants is not required by the Company's By-laws or otherwise. However, the Board is submitting the selection of Oppenheim & Ostrick to the stockholders for ratification in order to obtain the views of stockholders regarding such selection. If the stockholders fail to ratify the selection of Oppenheim & Ostrick, the Board will reconsider its selection. Even if this selection is ratified, the Board, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of different independent accountants at any time during the year, if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THIS PROPOSAL.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors does not know of any other matters which may be brought before the Annual Meeting. However, if any such other matters are properly presented for action at the Annual Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy to vote the shares represented thereby in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

Failure to give notice as provided by this subsection (2) shall not affect any action taken pursuant to section 7-107-104 for which the notice was to have been given, but any shareholder who was entitled to dissent but who was not given such notice shall not be precluded from demanding payment for the shareholder's shares under this article by reason of the shareholder's failure to comply with the provisions of section 7-113-202 (2).

7-113-202 - NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT.

7-113-205 - UNCERTIFICATED SHARES.

(1) Upon receipt of a demand for payment under section 7-113-204 from a shareholder holding uncertificated shares, and in lieu of the deposit of certificates representing the shares, the corporation may restrict the transfer thereof.

(2) In all other respects, the provisions of section 7-113-204 shall be applicable to shareholders who own uncertificated shares.

7-113-206 - PAYMENT.

(1) Except as provided in section 7-113-208 upon the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 or upon receipt of a payment demand pursuant to section 7-113-204 whichever is later, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with section 7-113-204, at the address stated in the payment demand, or if no such address is stated in the payment demand, at the address shown on the corporation's current record of shareholders for the record shareholder holding the dissenter's shares, the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest.

(2) The payment made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be accompanied by:

(a) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of its most recent fiscal year or, if that is not available, the corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, and, if the corporation customarily provides such statements to shareholders, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year and a statement of cash flow for that year, which balance sheet and statements shall have been audited if the corporation customarily provides audited financial statements to shareholders, as well as the latest available financial statements, if any, for the interim or full-year period, which financial statements need not be audited;

(2) If the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 occurs more than sixty days after the date set by the corporation by which the corporation must receive the payment demand as provided in section 7-113-203, then the corporation shall send a new dissenters' notice, as provided in section 7-113-203 and the provisions of sections 7-113-204 to 7-113-209 shall again be applicable.

7-113-208 - SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO SHARES ACQUIRED AFTER ANNOUNCEMENT OF PROPOSED CORPORATE ACTION.

(1) The corporation may, in or with the dissenters' notice given pursuant to section 7-11-203 state the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 and state that the dissenter shall certify in writing, in or with the dissenter's payment demand under section 7-113-204, whether or not the dissenter (or the person on whose behalf dissenters' rights are asserted) acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date. With respect to any dissenter who does not so certify in writing, in or with the payment demand, that the dissenter or the person on whose behalf the dissenter asserts dissenters' rights acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before such date, the corporation may, in lieu of making the payment provided in section 7-113-206, offer to make such payment if the dissenter agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the demand.

(2) An offer to make payment under subsection (1) of this section shall include or be accompanied by the information required by section 7-113-206 (2).

7-113-209 - PROCEDURE IF DISSENTER IS DISSATISFIED WITH PAYMENT OR OFFER.

(1) A dissenter may give notice to the corporation in writing of the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and of the amount of interest due and may demand payment of such estimate, less any payment made under section 7-113-206, or reject the corporation's offer under section 7-113-208 and demand payment of the fair value of the shares and interest due, if:

(a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under section 7-113-206 or offered under section 7-113-208 is less than the fair value of the shares or that the interest due was incorrectly calculated;

(b) The corporation fails to make payment under section 7-113-206 within sixty days after the date set by the corporation by which the corporation must receive the payment demand; or

(c) The corporation does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares as required by section 7-113-207 (1).

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter causes the corporation to receive the notice required by subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenters shares.

EXHIBIT B

This Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the 28th day of February 2002 by and between JNS Marketing, Inc., a Colorado corporation ("JNS"), and Latinocare Management Corporation, a Nevada corporation ("LMC"), with respect to the following facts:

RECITALS

- B. LMC is a Nevada corporation that does not currently have an operating business and has no material assets or liabilities.
- C. JNS desires to reincorporate in Nevada by merging with and into LMC (the "Merger") in consideration for the right to receive a total of 14,529,100 shares of the common stock of LMC (the "Shares").
- D. By the written consent of a majority of the shareholders of LMC, the shareholders of LMC have approved the reincorporation and merger with and into LMC.

- E. At the annual meeting of shareholders of JNS on February 28, 2002, a majority of the shareholders of JNS approved the reincorporation and merger with and into LMC.
- F. At the effective time of the merger, the separate corporate existence of JNS Marketing, Inc., a Colorado corporation (the "Disappearing Corporation") will terminate, and Latinocare Management Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Surviving Corporation") shall be the surviving corporation.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the parties to this Agreement, and in light of the above recitals to this Agreement, the parties to this Agreement hereby agree as follows:

1. THE MERGER.

Pursuant to the laws of the State of Colorado and subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, JNS shall be merged with and into LMC, and the outstanding shares of common stock of JNS (the "JNS Common Stock") shall be converted into shares of common stock of LMC (the "LMC Common Stock"). JNS and LMC shall execute Articles of Merger, to be filed with the Secretary of State of Nevada, and Articles of Merger, to be filed with the Secretary of State of Colorado, on the Closing Date, as defined in Section 5 of this Agreement, or as soon thereafter as practicable. The merger of JNS with and into LMC shall take effect upon the recording of the Articles of Merger (the "Effective Time").

2. EFFECT OF MERGER.

At the Effective Time, JNS shall be merged with and into LMC in the manner and with the effect provided by the Colorado General Corporation Law and the Nevada General Corporation Law. At such time the separate corporate existence of JNS shall cease, and LMC shall be the surviving corporation. The outstanding shares of JNS Common Stock shall be converted into LMC Common Stock, and the outstanding shares of common stock of LMC owned by the LMC shareholders shall be cancelled, all on the basis, terms, and conditions described in Section 3 of this Agreement.

3. MERGER CONSIDERATION.

3.1. JNS COMMON STOCK.

The shares of JNS Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to exist and be converted into the right to receive a total of 14,529,100 shares of LMC Common Stock ("Merger Consideration"). Upon the closing, each holder of outstanding JNS Common Stock will receive one share of LMC Common Stock for each share of JNS owned by such holder immediately prior to the closing of the Merger.

3.2. LMC COMMON STOCK.

Each share of LMC Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be surrendered for cancellation to the Surviving Corporation. Until so surrendered, the certificates, which prior to the Merger represented shares of LMC Common Stock owned by JNS, shall be deemed, for all corporate purposes, including voting entitlement, to evidence ownership by the JNS shareholders of the shares of the LMC Common Stock into which such shares of LMC Common Stock shall have been converted.

3.3. STOCK SPLITS.

If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of LMC Common Stock shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class by reason of any reclassification, combination, recapitalization, stock split, stock dividend, subdivision, exchange of shares, or other extraordinary transaction, the number of shares of LMC Common Stock issued as Merger Consideration shall be adjusted proportionately.

4. SURRENDER AND CANCELLATION OF CERTIFICATES.

4.1. NO CERTIFICATE.

If the holder of JNS Common Stock is unable to deliver a certificate or certificates representing the shares of JNS Common Stock owned by the holder immediately prior to the Effective Time, LMC, in the absence of actual notice that such shares have been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, shall deliver to the JNS shareholders the number of shares of LMC Common Stock to which each JNS shareholder is entitled in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement upon the presentation of the following: (i) evidence satisfactory to LMC (a) that said holder is the owner of such shares represented by each certificate claimed by said holder to be lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed and (b) that the holder is the owner that would be entitled to present each such certificate for conversion pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be reasonably requested by LMC to indemnify and hold LMC and the Transfer Agent harmless.

4.2. NO FRACTIONAL SHARES.

No certificates or script evidencing fractional shares of LMC Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger. In lieu of a fractional share, LMC will issue to any holder of JNS Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of LMC Common Stock one additional share of LMC Common Stock. The provisions of this Section 4.2 shall apply to the aggregate number of shares of JNS Common Stock held by each holder and each such holder will be required to simultaneously surrender all certificates relating to shares of JNS Common Stock held by such holder in accordance with Section 4 of this Agreement.

4.3. ESCHEAT.

Neither JNS nor LMC shall be liable to any holder of shares of JNS Common Stock or LMC Common Stock for any such shares of LMC Common Stock (or dividends or distribution with respect thereto) or cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat, or similar law.

4.4. WITHHOLDING RIGHTS.

LMC shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration such amounts as LMC is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under any provision of state, federal, or local tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by LMC, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid by the holder of the shares of JNS Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by LMC.

5. THE CLOSING.
