The Company is in discussions to engage Stonefield Josephson, Inc.

("New Accountant") to audit and review the Company's financial statements for the periods ending September 30, 2002 and the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. Oppenheim & Ostick ("Former Accountant") terminated its engagement with the Company because it has decided not to act in SEC engagements as independent auditors. The Company had no disagreements with its Former Accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure.

The Former Accountant terminated its engagement effective September 11, 2002. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and through the date hereof, the Company did not have any disagreements with the Former Accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the Former Accountant's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports. The decision to select the New Accountant has been recommended and is expected to be approved by the Company's Board of Directors.

The New Accountant is expected to be engaged for general audit and review services and not because of any particular transaction or accounting principle, or because of any disagreement with the Former Accountant. A letter from the Former Accountant addressed to The Securities and Exchange Commission is attached to this Report as Exhibit 7(c) (16).
